Full cooperation required. Individual results will vary. Additional fees may be involved in individual cases. Some cases may require additional treatment. Nothing herein is intended to be nor shall be construed as a prediction or guarantee of future satisfaction or success of any orthodontic service, a statement of opinion as to the quality of orthodontic services, or a claim of superior orthodontic skills. Patients herein may or may not be actual patients of the practice. Treatment may be performed by general dentists who are not specialists. The doctor is responsible for providing more details as needed.
